

- FFA is an essential piece to a successful agriculture education program. The National FFA Organization (formerly Future Farmers of America) is a youth organization within agriculture education that offers opportunities for leadership development, personal growth and career success. Montague Township School has an active FFA chapter, Montague Township Middle FFA. This chapter promotes career success by planning activities and hands-on experiences through agriculture classes. Students can compete in state competitions to develop skills such as teamwork, communication and problem-solving.