

- Monty's Buddy Bistro is an after school club where middle school peer leaders partner up with elementary aged special education students to cook healthy and delicious recipes. Together, they learn about nutrition and agriculture through hands-on activities. They develop the skills they need to cook while building aspects of peer relationships, teamwork, responsibility and self-confidence. The overall goal of the program is to foster a community of students that celebrate the power of diversity and acceptance.