

- Video Production Club – Kayte Snyder and Michael Spina - Video production involves the implementation and development of a wide array of skills, which will engage our students on an intellectual level. In turn, this will advance the students' academic growth. In addition to students furthering their ELA, math, STEM and problem-solving skills through the work done during video productions, the students will also gain tools which can be utilized in 21st century career paths.